

Physics Olympiad Bylaws

Section 1: Name and Purpose

Name: The name of the organization will be known as Physics Olympiad.

Purpose: The purpose of the Physics Olympiad is to build interest in the future generation of students in the field of Physics and provide opportunities to help students excel in the subject. This will be done in the form of Lectures, competitions and competition preparation, and tutoring.

Section 2: Membership

Eligibility: Physics Olympiad is open to any student interested in Physics whether or not they are interested in competing.

Member Expectations: Actively participate in the club and show up to meetings. Pay the expected dues for the club. Collaborate respectfully with members and officers.

Competition Team: For those planning on participating in the $F=ma$, Physics bowl, or both, attending meetings is mandatory and must actively participate and help solve problems and pay the dues associated. Anyone is eligible to join as long as they adhere to these rules.

Section 3: Leadership Organization

President: Oversees the general functioning of the club, organizes meetings and lectures to prepare for the competitions in the year.

Vice President: Oversees tutoring services and fiscal organization of the club

Marketing lead: Oversees club marketing to advertise to different grades and gain traction for club popularity through social media and websites.

The President and Advisor will choose who fills the vice president and marketing roles.

Section 4: Meetings

Meetings will be held weekly or bi-weekly for lectures or competition preparation depending on availability of officers and other club schedules. Members are expected to attend over 50% of these meetings and the competition team is expected to attend all unless excused.

Section 5: Competition

Currently planned are the $f=ma$ and Physics bowl competition semester 2. However as more competitions are being hosted, some may be added and fees may apply.

Section 6: Advisor and Amendments

The bylaw articles for Physics Olympiad can be changed at any time if the President, Vice President, and Advisor agree to .

The advisor may

- Propose amendments
- Alter meeting plans
- Approve and modify Amendments to the club.
